Point Pleasant.

Some of the farmers have killed hogs. I hear of some who have killed and have had their meat to sell on account of the weather turning warm.

His honor Esquire W. B. Tracy, of Bald Knob, paid the Point a visit last Friday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harrod and son, Alfred, of Scarbelle, Shelby county, visited her sister, Mrs. R. J. Shannon, Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Wm. Harrod and wife, of Flat Creek, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Henry Polgrove, of Belle Point, on their return, were paid the Point a flying visit.

Mr. J. R. Harrod, of Shelby county visited Hawk Eye Saturday.

Miss Katie Fincel, of Frankfort, visited her sister, Mrs. Updyke, last Thursday.

R. J. Shannon and wife visited Mrs. Shannon's father, Mr. Alfred Rodgers, near Scarbelle, last Sunday.

Misses Sallie Hopper and Belle Moore, of Antioch neighborhood, visited Mrs. R. J. Shannon Monday.

Mr. Ed. Stivers, of the Point, was the guest of Mr. Butler Gore Monday night.

Mat says that the people thought he could not marry, therefore he just married to show them that he could. He passed along the pig singing as merry as a lark. "I've got a little while to go home to."

Messrs. Jo. Rouch and James Sheridan, while getting out rock to build a chimney for R. J. Shannon last Thursday, Dec. 5th, killed a snake. One said it was a viper and the other says he was a copper-head. His snakebitten made little.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Arnold, of Belle Point, visited this neighborhood Sunday.

Mr. P. Updyke has been for the last two weeks at Frankfort slaughtering hogs for Messrs H. and C. W. Fincel.

Mr. Geo. Fincel visited Mr. and Mrs. Updyke Sunday.

Mr. J. J. Russell has moved into his new house, where he cordially invites all his friends to call and see him.

Clipper does not know the difference between hair and feathers when he says an Indian scalp is the scalp of a hooding owl. You must feel again, Clipper.

Rusty Cuss went last Monday to buy him another mill. He is going to grinding on a larger scale than ever before. Gather up your bones and have them ready, for he will come around so many he was going to buy the mill.

I am glad that so many of the correspondents of the Record have expressed their willingness to meet Dec. 25th. Hope all will be present, as there are a great many of them that I do not know only by their non de plume. I shall be glad to mingle with them.

Messrs Jo. Rouch and James Sheridan, of Shelby county, have done a good piece of masonry in the case of a chimney. They go next to Mr. Fielding Lewis.

Mr. James Goff and wife, of Frankfort, and Mrs. Fran Thomson, of Paris, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

Hawk Eye.

Bridgeport.

Tom Pett's many friends and relatives in this section are rejoiced in his accession to a clerkship in Congress.

Mrs. W. Scofield and Miss Bettie Roberts have been in Shelby county this week, visiting relatives.

Mr. Wm. Parker, of Frankfort, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Russell, this week. Preparations are being made for a larger tobacco crop next year than for any previous year in this section.

We are under many obligations to Mr. Sam O. Crockett and Miss Jacque Jackson for a delightful musical entertainment last Tuesday night.

Squire J. W. Jackson, who has been in Illinois, in attendance on his brother, Mr. Jas. Jackson, who has been very ill, has returned home, and reports him very much better.

Mr. Geo. China has moved into his house recently purchased and fitted up.

A grand soiree at Mr. Henry Sanders' last Monday night.

Mr. Wm. Scofield and wife entertained a few friends at their residence last Monday night. The occasion was one of great enjoyment to all present.

Mr. Parker Satterwhite, of Missouri, visited friends and relatives in this place this week.

Mr. Wm. French, of Simpsonville, paid a visit of great importance to this section a few days since.

The usual school exercises and Christmas tree connected therewith will take place Monday evening, Dec. 24, 1883, at 6 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend and contribute to the entertainment of the children.

We earnestly desire to see the Editor of the Roundabout present.

The Missouri fever that was raging so fearfully in this section a short time since has about subsided and not a single exit either.

Mr. Harry Blythe left last week for Louisville, where he expects to reside in the future.

Mr. Guilford Sanders had 14 sheep killed by dogs last Sunday night. Several dogs have been killed that were known to have been guilty, others are still at large, but will be likewise dealt with as soon as caught.

We think it very strange that the teachers in this county remain so quiet in regard to the money justly due them, accruing from railroad tax. But three, so far as we are informed, have yet expressed any concern in the matter. It may be the other 40 are so well situated financially that the money sum above mentioned is of no consequence, and therefore not worth the effort it would take to obtain it.

If we, who are toiling day after day to instruct the youth of the land in the foundation principals of an education, are not willing to arise and assert our rights, we may expect to be run over and trodden under foot as the acorn of creation.

We again express the desire that those who are interested in this matter will speak out and let us know their sentiments in the premises.

The suggestion of "A Common Teacher" that the teachers meet in Frankfort on the 22d of December, 1883, and take action in regard to this matter, is a good one. We hope full representation will be present and some steps may be taken that will lead to a final consummation of the object sought.

For Toys Call at Banta's, opposite State House.

Sulphur Lick.

The space generally allotted newspaper correspondents being necessarily circumscribed it behooves them to write medium in parvo.

There was a sound of revelry by night—music and the dance, at the Waldner Bro's a few nights ago, and all went merry as a marriage bell.

The suggestion made some time ago by cousin Hawk Eye that all the correspondents of the Record meet at the Editorial convention on the 20th inst. seemed to meet with general favor, and I will most assuredly try to put in an appearance.

The debate at Pleasant View on last Wednesday night was well attended and the question, "Which has the greater right of complaint against the Whites, the Indian or Negro," was very ably discussed by J. Hulet and C. S. Quire, in the affirmative, and J. R. Hulet and Willis Rodgers in the negative, but no satisfactory conclusion being reached it has been decided to re-discuss the same question at that place on Wednesday night, the 19th inst.

A very peculiar lot was made a few days ago by two prominent citizens living near here, one of whom is a merchant, the water being a nickel each. A certain individual from over the line had purchased a bill of goods from said merchant and asked credit for a short time, which was granted, whereupon the other citizen promptly laid the above water that the debt would never be paid, giving the merchant one thousand years in which to make the collection.

John Warren, sr., an old and highly respected citizen of this community, was stricken with paralysis on the 12th inst., which he died in a very short time. The funeral services were held by Rev. J. A. Peters at the residence of the deceased, after which the remains were interred in the old churchyard at Lebanon.

Mr. Warren was a native of Clark county, and was born near Winchester in the year 1806, but removed to this county about 1840 since which time he has been a resident here. He professed religion in his youthful days and lived an exemplary Christian through life. His wife, the companion of his joys and sorrows, survives him in a green old age, with the consolation of many friends, and the blessed assurance that her earthly loss is his eternal gain.

As the question has been raised concerning the misappropriation of a part of the school fund and has been carried into the courts for adjudication, which august tribunal has refused to act in relation thereto, and as there seems to be a cover design on the part of certain officials to bring the matter before the incoming Legislature, for the purpose of defeating the ends of justice by requesting that body to enact some measure by which to quash the whole procedure, therefore I suggest to the Teachers of Franklin county, that we meet in convention at the Court house in Frankfort, on Saturday the 20th inst., at 10 o'clock a. m., and take some decided action in reference to the matter. Let there be a full attendance, not only of teachers, but of all others interested in the cause of education.

Teachers' Meeting.

In response to the suggestions of a Common School Teacher, in the last Roundabout, the Common School Teachers of Franklin county, led by K. K. K. are requested to meet in Frankfort on Saturday December 22d, 1883, at the Court-house at 2 p. m., to take steps in regard to the question of the taxes paid by railroad companies, under the Public School Laws of Kentucky.

Papers friendly to the cause of education will please publish this.

Choice lot of Christmas goods at low prices. Banta's New Store, Between the Bridges.

The weather is fine and business lively. Corn wagons are heard clucking early and late.

Mrs. Dr. Horne and daughters, of Graceland, spent the day with Mrs. S. M. Tinsley last Monday.

Mrs. T. B. Johnson and Mrs. Thompson Johnson spent Monday with Mrs. Frank Crutcher, at Graceland.

Owen Tinsley has the fastest trotter in this part of the country, but Charley Johnson has the best pacer.

Misses Annie L. Johnson and Sallie Sharp have just returned from a visit to friends in Shelbyville.

E. E. E. and G. B. Rouch talk of moving to Shelby county and engaging in the farming business. We regret that they have decided to leave us, and are especially sorry for some of the young ladies, who have become so accustomed to Eddie's Sunday evening calls that they will be lonely indeed without him.

Mrs. T. B. Johnson spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. S. M. Tinsley.

Miss Janie Thacker, of Shelby county, spent last week with her cousin, Miss Hattie Thacker, of this vicinity.

The people of Graceland and vicinity are already making preparations for the Christmas tree to be given at that place December 25th, and we feel sure it will be a grand success.

The young ladies and gentlemen of this neighborhood, who attended church at Clay-ville on Sunday seemed to be enjoying their drive very nicely as they returned, so much so that the couple driving the horse were neglected to use their lines and the horse walked up against the side of the bridge and stopped.

We did think that some of the young ladies of our community had such an extensive claim on J. J. Smith, the photographer, that even an angel could not sever the bonds which held him here, but one of Harbisonville's fairest daughters presented herself too sharp for our country girls, and she has worked his mind up to such an extent that he goes moping about his tent neither eating or drinking, but longing for the sweet day of bliss to come.

Prof. Carter has just closed a five month's school at Hardinsville, and notwithstanding this is his fourth session at that place, there has not been a single objection to his teaching, and the patrons of the school desire, it possible, to secure his services for at least another term.

We heartily concur with our Bridgeport correspondents in their opinion as regards the proposed appropriation for a new jail, and can safely say that there is not an individual in our community who is in favor of said appropriation.

It seems very odd, as a unit, are of the opinion that a jail is intended for a place of safe keeping or punishment, and not as a first-class hotel.

Esquire S. M. Tinsley has just returned from Ballitt county, and furnishes us with the following account of his trip. We give it in his own language, as nearly as possible: "Leaving home on Sunday morning I drove to Shelbyville in company with Prof. Carter, and after spending the night in Shelbyville I took the train for Shepherdsville by way of Louisville; had a slight wreck on the way, but no one seriously injured. I think Ballitt county the poorest county in the State, but filled with generous, clever people. After two days and nights' hard work I succeeded in selling the farm of T. B. Johnson for $1,100 (largely purchased by said Johnson for $571), and received as compensation for my services $100 and expenses. I returned home by way of Bardonia, stopping at the Central Hotel at that place; found the proprietors to be most estimable and accommodating gentlemen, and their hotel unsurpassed for neatness and pleasant accommodations. I was conducted from thence to Bardonia by one of the proprietors, Mr. George Hughes. My trip was altogether a very pleasant one indeed."

Good for the Esquire: he always retains his well deserved reputation as a fine salesman, first-class trader, and an honorable gentleman.

Esquire S. M. Tinsley and Prof. Carter left Thursday evening for Elkhorn, for the purpose of selling a bridge in that vicinity.

The new Opera House is nearly completed. The chairs are being put in, the scene painter is at work on the drop curtain and it is expected that the opening will take place on the evening of the 21st or 27th. The Committee of the Council have secured the Clara Scott Combination for the two opening nights, and after that it will be turned over to Mr. A. C. Wood, the lessee.

Messrs. S. & J. H. Told have opened a wholesale and retail coal office at the grocery of Mr. H. B. Williams, in South Frankfort, where they will be glad to receive orders for the best quality of coal at the lowest prices. Mr. Peter E. Told will always be found in the office, and will be assisted by Mr. Campbell Stolle, who can be found at the office of Messrs. Hord & Trahne, and will give any information which may be desired.

There came near being a serious accident at the intersection of Broadway and Ann streets Wednesday morning. Mrs. L. Labrot and one of her children were out riding, and in passing one of the City Mills delivery wagons at that point the wheels of the two vehicles became entangled, and before they could be extricated, the yard engine came up the track and so frightened the horses attached to the carriage that it was as much as three or four men could do to prevent their running away. The engine was stopped, however, in time to prevent any more damage than a bad scare for the occupants of the carriage and a broken strap or two.

A fine Jersey Cow belonging to Mr. W. J. China, while grazing in the Coleman Spring lot, in South Frankfort, Thursday morning, was shot by some unknown person and her left hind leg broken. She was valued at $500. Mr. China having paid $400 for her last year in Pennsylvania, and is with calf by Regina's Rex, a fine bull in Pennsylvania. The broken bone has been set and the leg placed in plaster, and every effort will be made to save her life; but it is feared she cannot be saved on account of her condition.

This is the result of the promiscuous shooting that is kept up in that section of the city by boys and hunters, and the attention of the police is called to it. The city limits were extended so as to include that territory in order to put a stop to such practices, but it seems it has done little good. Persons living in the neighborhood heard the report of the pistol and saw the cow fall where she stood near the spring, but no one knows who did it. Can't the police find out?

Mr. Tom Rodgers returned home Sunday evening from a visit to friends near Eminence and Belle View.

Since Hawk Eye speaks of John Rossell's drinking the healing waters of the quarry springs, it seems reasonable that those noted springs which have been so much talked about as being so much to be cured with Ratus at Sulphur Lick. He got tired looking at the beautiful scenery, drank his healing waters and became so sound and well that he has gone home, and that is the reason he has quit writing. Whenever you get ill again, Ratus, come back to the Lick; we love to read your writing.

Mr. Punch and Judy, have a good boundary between the bridge, as we can elbow off as far as Tom Kester's high bridge. So you can spread out over the broad expanse.

Sunday evening four young men viz: Pat Harrod, Wallace Quire, Dave Phillips, and George Miller went a courting. After being at the house of the daisies some time they became alarmed at seeing a smoke rise up as if a neighbor's house was on fire. The last we heard from them they had almost run themselves to death. When they reached the house that they thought was on fire they found only a smoke in the meat-house and the owner was busy playing marbles. You must be more certain next time, boys.

The correspondent attended a debate at Pleasant View school-house Wednesday night which was exciting in the extreme. The question was: Which has a greater right to complain of the treatment received at the hands of white men, the Indian or the negro. The question was discussed by Mr. James Hallett and Charlie Quire, in the affirmative, and James Harrod and Willis Rodgers in the negative. The former came out winner not by speaking but by prejudice on the part of the judges. JYMO.

A child of Mr. Milton P. A trial bottle will convince. No other remedy equals it.
